

---

RED EARTH UNCOVERED II

---

BIOS

PETER STRUTT

Peter is currently working as a Writer, Producer and Director involved in independent productions, and has produced over 90 episodes of content that have broadcast in Canada and around the world. From 2005 to 2011, Mr. Strutt worked at APTN where he was the Director of Programming. He has previous work experience with Telefilm Canada overseeing domestic and international co-productions as well as international experience in government trade missions and business development. More recently, Peter won "Best Documentary Series" at the 2018 Alberta Film and Television Awards.

LORI LOUIS

Lori uses her finance degree (BCOMM), international marketing degree (MBA) and past experience to facilitate her current role as a producer, writer and director on various independent development projects and productions. She worked on 4 seasons of the award-winning documentary series, "underEXPOSED", which is broadcast in the U.S., Australia and Europe. More recently, Lori was nominated for "Best Screenwriter – Non-Fiction Under 30 Minutes" as well as won "Best Documentary Series" at the 2018 Alberta Film and Television Awards.

TOM JACKSON

Tom is a Canadian icon that has been recognized as an accomplished actor, singer and philanthropist. Tom's life started from humble beginnings as he was born on One Arrow Reserve in Saskatchewan. Later in life Tom ended up dropping out of school and lived on the street for several years of his life. It was on the streets that Tom discovered his calling to help those in need. Since Tom's life-changing moment he has raised millions for food banks, received eight honorary university degrees, been Chancellor of Trent University and is a member of the Order of Canada. Tom is also well-known onscreen and has been a successful actor on programs such as "North of 60" and "Star Trek". More recently, Tom received an Alberta Film and Television Rosie nomination for "Best Television Host" for Season I of "Red Earth Uncovered".

SHAYLA STONECHILD

Shayla is a young Metis woman from the Muskowpetung Salteaux Nation in Saskatchewan. Shayla has worked with many First Nations and Metis communities promoting suicide prevention by sharing her personal story and promoting good mental and physical health. Shayla has been acting, dancing and modeling since the age of six. Past television experience include series such as "Klondike", "Agent 89" and "Incontrol". Shayla received a 2018 Alberta Film and Television Rosie nomination for "Best Television Host" for Season I of "Red Earth Uncovered".

---

RED EARTH UNCOVERED II

---

MARIE LINDA BLUTEAU,

Marie's artistic talent is born from the traces of Renaissance and abstract masters of thought, as well as presents hints of Chinese shadows and silhouettes. Her work manifests a contemporary imprint of its own, standing out with a rich, unique and mature style. Bluteau's legitimate recognition as a renowned visual artist has led her to be the first in Quebec and in Canada, to realize herself as a sand drawing artist offering breathtaking and rave performances around the world.